

Consultation instructions

Consultation sessions for the area-based working groups:

- Urgent and non-urgent consultations related to young people being treated by Tyks Adolescent Psychiatry.
- Consultations related to the preparation of a non-urgent outpatient referral.
- Local arrangement of treatment and urgency of access to treatment, the questionnaires to be appended to the referral must be completed.
- Questions may be submitted as phone or paper consultations if, once the referring party has received a response, that same party may continue as the patient's treatment provider, e.g. non-urgent medication questions. Paper consultations must be addressed to the centralised referral processing service (Tyks Psychiatric Referral Processing, PO Box 52, 20521 Turku).

As a general rule, a referral for a young person will be sent to the relevant working groups in accordance with the municipal division below. If justified due to the individual being a student studying in another municipality or for other reasons, an Adolescent Psychiatry working group other than that of the individual's home municipality may also be selected.
